THE EMASCULATED SCANDAL,

BROOKLYN, August 6.—The only item of news in reference to the scandal is contained in the following: Parties to the Beecher-Tilton scandal may be said to be hard at work preparing for the final struggle in the contest before the investigating committee. It is generally believed that if the matter is to be settled outside of the courts, Moulton's forthcoming statement will settle it, as his statement will settle it, as his ent will necessarily be submitted, with documents in support of it, which Beecher and Tilton have referred to as being authentic.

The Argus publishes a three column interview with Judge Morris, Tilton's counsel, on the subject of the impending law suit. The Judge stated that as Tilton had not thought of employing legal counsel until within the past few days, he could not give any intimation as to the course of future proceedings. He was only just beginning himself with the testimony. But he had never seen a case so traced the forest field and exposed part of their body being actually roasted by excessive Leat.
